Indicate the ONE answer that MOST closely represents your PERSONAL view.

1) I consider the Bible to be:

- God-inspired, containing parts of differing quality and accuracy.
- the revealed Word of God, true in all details.
- fine background literature on Christian thought but based on legend/folk tales.
- a book with little meaning or use in the 20th century.

2) I think Jesus:

- probably never actually lived.
- is one of the greatest teachers or prophets of all time.
- was one of history's greatest personalities but is neither divine nor infallible.
- is divine God in human form.

3) Now to see if you are still with us (hang in there!); I believe Bart Simpson:

- is Elijah ushering in the second coming of the Messiah.
- is a Gnostic appearance of Anti-Christ during the Millennium when it raptures.
- is the personification of the Sermon on the Mount.
- is one of the great prophets, with Moses, Buddah, Mohammad and Madonna.

4) I believe that "speaking in tongues":

- is not a valid gift for our day.
- is a valid spiritual gift for our day.
- is a sign and evidence of the baptism of the Holy Spirit.
- may or may not be a valid gift or accompany the baptism of the Holy Spirit, but it is not essential.

5) I believe that after death:

- a person's soul continues to exist and will be rewarded or punished by God.
- the soul continues to exist but merely as a part of the universal spirit.
- we do not know enough to say what follows death.
- a person ceases to exist. There is nothing after death.

6) I believe that in order to obtain salvation as taught in the Bible, a person:

- can believe whatever he wishes as long as he is true to the light he possesses.
- must recognize the necessity of Christ and be baptized.
- can do nothing; his salvation is predetermined.
- accepts Christ by praying Him into his heart.

7) I believe that "baptism" is:

- necessary to salvation and can be either by sprinkling or immersion.
- not a part of salvation, but most Christians will be baptized.
- necessary to salvation and is by immersion only.
- a spiritual, not a physical, experience.
